CREDITS & ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The 2021-22 Georgia Bulldog Basketball Media Guide was produced with Adobe InDesign Desktop Publishing.

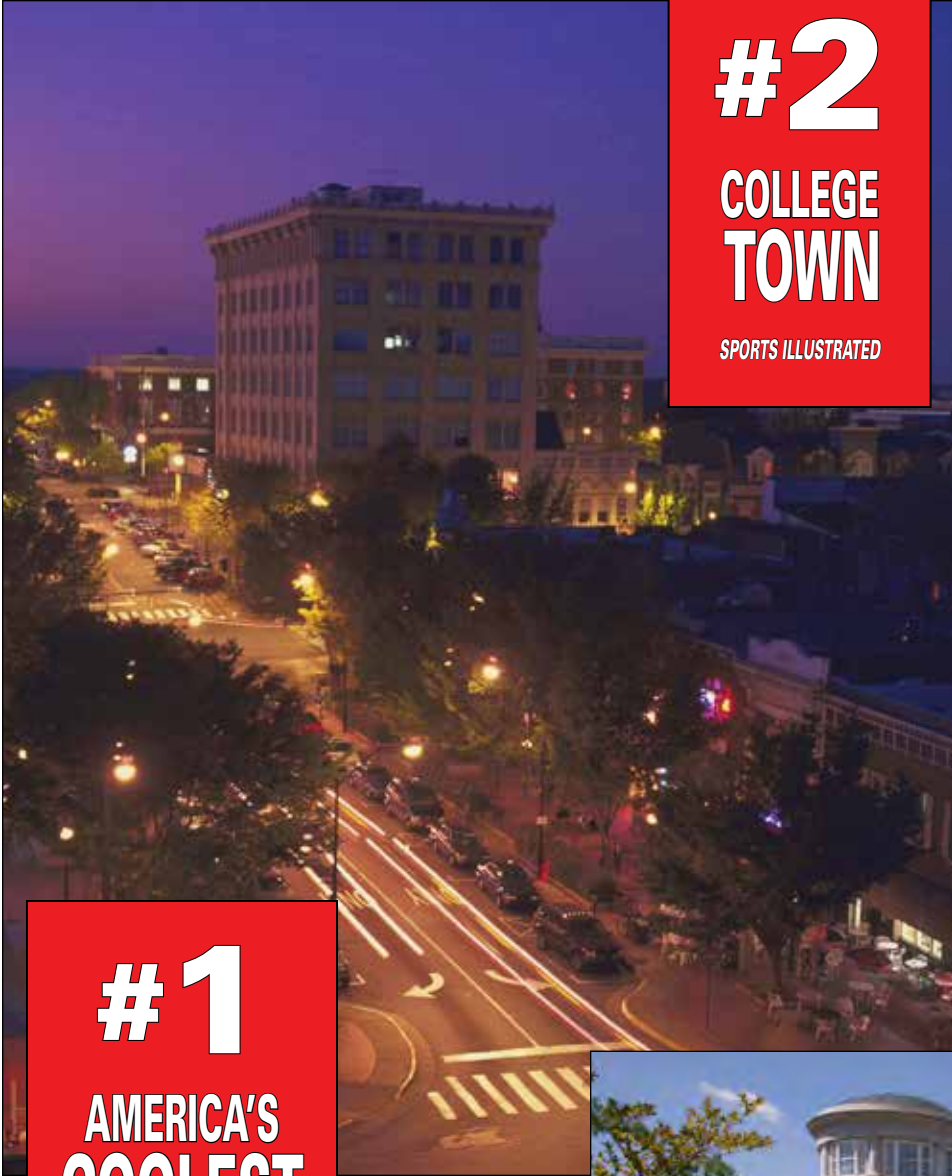

The publication was designed, written and edited by Associate SID Mike Mobley, with much-appreciated assistance of the UGA sports communications office's interns, graduate assistants and student assistants; statistics guru Dave McMahon; and staff photographers Tony Walsh and Mackenzie Miles.

Outside and inside covers designed by Jordan Lange, Director of Creative Services and Social Media for Georgia Basketball.

To ensure the accuracy of the historical information – especially in the early years of Georgia Basketball – extensive research has been conducted. If you have evidence that conflicts with dates, opponents or scores, please direct contact Mike Mobley at mmobley@sports.uga.edu.

46 UGA has captured 46 national championships in 11 different sports, with 28 of those coming in the 2000s.

87 UGA registered a graduation rate of 87 percent in the most recent NCAA statistics, with five sports posting a perfect 100 percent.

41 A total of 41 former Georgia football players were on NFL rosters for the opening weekend of the 2021 season.

11 UGA student-athletes combined to win 11 medals at the Tokyo Olympic Games in 2021, including three Gold Medals.

17 Seventeen of UGA's 21 athletic programs have posted top-20 finishes in their national championships during the 2000s.

23 Georgia have finished as one of the nation's top-25 programs in the NACDA Director's Cup all-sports rankings for 23 consecutive years.

UGA IN 2020: PRO PICKS & CHAMPIONS

> UGA was the only school with a former player on the 2020 Champions of the NFL (Mecole Hardman), MLB (Alex Wood) and NBA (KCP below).

> In 2020, UGA became just the fifth school to have top-10 selections in the NFL (Andrew Thomas, No. 4 by the Giants), MLB (Emerson Hancock, No. 6 by Seattle) and NBA (Anthony Edwards, No. 1 by Minnesota) in the same draft cycle.

UGA transformed Stegeman Coliseum with two major renovations costing more than $20 million combined to give the historic arena at 21st century face lift.

FANS FLOCK TO THE STEG:

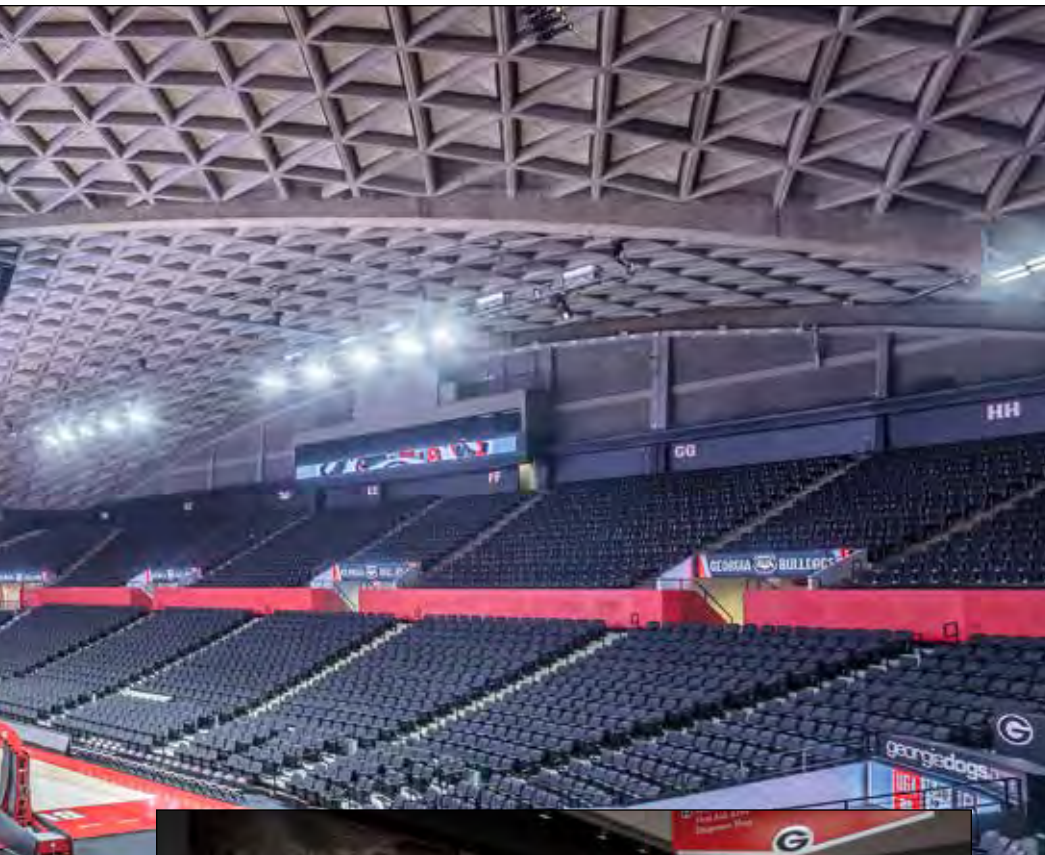

Georgia Basketball broke its all-time total attendance record for Stegeman Coliseum during both of Tom Crean's first two seasons in Athens. In 2019-20, the Bulldogs' home average of 9,651 was the second-highest in school history.

STEGEMAN UPDATES:

- > In 2010, a $13-million renovation upgraded Stegeman's concourse and added 10,000-square feet of space on both sides of the arena. Those efforts won awards from both the American Institute of Architects and the Illuminating Engineering Society of North America.
- > In 2016-17, an $8-million investment enhanced the Coliseum's court and seating areas, most notably with the addition of a massive center-hung scoreboard.
- > The multi-tiered center-hung scoreboard features more than 1000-square feet of HD video and 1000-square feet of LED sections
- > In addition, nearly 2000-square feet of LED features were added around the arena's portals and upper rim.

► NOTABLE NUMERALS

39 Anthony Edwards became Georgia's 39th all-time NBA Draft pick when he was taken No. 1 overall by Minnesota in 2020.

2 UGA is one of two Power 5 MBB programs to receive public recognition for APR and a perfect GSR score in the most recent NCAA data.

97 Georgia Bulldog basketball players have combined to be earn All-SEC 97 accolades during the conference's history.

26 Georgia has earned bids to postseason play 26 times, with all of those coming last 40 seasons. The 1983 Final Four is UGA's best showing.

120 UGA's practice facility, which is adjacent to Stegeman Coliseum, is one of the nation's largest with 120,000 square feet.

90 The SEC Network is the most successful of all college sports TV ventures and was available in 90 million homes when it launched in 2014.

CREDENTIALS

Credentials for UGA home games are issued for working media only and should be requested as early as possible. Credentials are issued on a priority basis. All requests should be made via the SportsSystems online credentialing site.

Passes will be mailed when time allows. Other single-game credentials will be left at MediaWill Call, which is located inside Gate A on the Smith Street side of the arena.

A limited number of parking passes will also be issued. Media parking is in the Coverdell Lot, located off Smith Street below the Coliseum Training Facility. In addition, parking in the Carlton Street deck, which is actually closer to MediaWill Call than the Coverdell Lot, is free of charge for media and fans.

INTERVIEWS

Interviews with coaches and players will be conducted before practice on pre-determined dates. These opportunities will be conducted virtually this season via Zoom sessions. Unless the calendar necessitates a change, these availabilities will take place the day before each home game. As much advance notice as possible will be given for these dates and times.

Please contact Mike Mobley in the Sports Communications office for assistance.

PRACTICES

Georgia's practice sessions are generally closed to the media. Upon request, videographers and photographers may be allowed to shoot a pre-determined portion at the beginning of some practices.

GAME DAY MEDIA SERVICES

Stegeman Coliseum's press facilities are outlined in the diagram to the following page.

The press room is located through Portal 3 and is equipped with wireless and ethernet internet access. A room with similar internet capabilities is available for photographers adjacent to the press room.

A pre-game meal is served approximately 90 minutes prior to tip-off. The meal will be served in an area 20 yards to the left after exiting the press room.

Press seating is located above Portal 2 in section K of the lower bowl. Radio broadcast positions are at the scorer's table, while TV announce locations are at center court opposite the scorer's table.

Complete first-half and final box scores will be provided, as will final game books with first- and second-half play-by-plays, first- and second-half shot charts and post-game notes and quotes will be provided to all working media.

INTERNET ACCESS

Media wishing to obtain high-speed Internet access may log on via either through wireless or hard-wired ethernet method. Both are available in the media seating area and the working press room within the Coliseum. Please see a member of the UGA Sports Communications office to obtain information on how to access the University network.

IN-GAME STATISTICS

Media covering Georgia home games can view a running statistical account on a web browser by logging onto: uga.statbroadcast.com.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Only those accredited photographers working on assignment will be issued sideline credentials. Flashes and strobe units are prohibited unless permission has been granted. Photographers should shoot from the designated endzone locations. No photographers are permitted in the bench area of either team.

Photographers who wish to transmit their photos on-site are asked to use the room adjacent to the working press room. This area is specifically dedicated to the transmission of photography and provides greater work space.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following home games, Georgia head coach Tom Crean and two Bulldog players will be available for interviews via a Zoom session.

STEGEMAN COLISEUM PRESS FACILITIES DIAGRAM

Zoom sessions with Coach Crean also will be conducted following road games.

Visiting teams also will conduct interviews via Zoom in a different location, meaning the home and visiting team interview sessions will likely be going on simultaneously. The visiting team will determine its postgame procedure for available players.

Information and links to the Zoom sessions will be emailed to the media approximately three hours before tipoff. Abby Fletcher of the UGA Sports Communications office will moderate Georgia's interviews for home games.

Christened in 1963 as the Georgia Coliseum, the venue was officially renamed and dedicated to the memory of Herman James Stegeman on Saturday, March 2, 1996. Stegeman made many contributions to Georgia's athletic program during his 20-year tenure (1919-39). He was a pioneer in the development of college basketball in the south, originating the region's first big basketball tournament when he organized the Southern Conference Tournament in Atlanta from 1921-32. Stegeman Hall on the UGA campus was named for Coach Stegeman in 1946 and for years it was home of the University's athletic and physical education departments. The athletic department moved its offices to the new coliseum in 1964, and Stegeman Hall was demolished in 1995 following completion of the Ramsey Student Center for Physical Activities.

The Coliseum is actually two separate structures, the roof and the building beneath it. The only connection is an aluminum bellows which seals the joints and permits the rise and fall of the roof with temperature change.

Stegeman has undergone thorough renovations in the last few years, receiving a 21st Century face lift. In 2017, fans walked in to the final product following more than $20-million in renovations over the past several years.

During the summer of 2017, the arena received a massive center-hung scoreboard, new black seats, an improved LED lighting system, a state-of-the-art sound system and graphics above the horseshoe end celebrating past teams and retired jerseys. That followed work in 2017 which provided a dramatic mural covering the Coliseum's distinctive end wall.

In 2010, Stegeman's concourses received a similar makeover, upgrading the graphics, enhancing spectator access to concessions and restrooms and adding 5,000-square feet of concourse space on each side of the arena. Those efforts won awards from both the American Institute of Architects and the Illuminating Engineering Society of North America.

In addition, Stegeman Coliseum was utilized for rhythmic gymnastics and preliminary volleyball competition during the Centennial Olympic Games in 1996.

THE GEORGIA BULLDOG RADIO NETWORK

The best and broadest exposure possible for UGA basketball comes from the Georgia Bulldog Radio Network by IMG Sports. Not only with its vast number of affiliates, but also from its powerful flagship station AM 750 in Atlanta, the network gives coverage to Bulldog hoops that is unmatched by any program nationwide.

IMG Sports provides radio network production for more than 30 major college athletic programs in the SEC and other prominent conferences across the United States. The network flagship is News/Talk 750 WSB — Atlanta's 50,000-watt, clear-channel station — which provides coverage with a signal that reaches more than 35 states and Canada. Scott Howard and Chuck Dowdle will again handle the play-by-play and color analyst duties, respectively. Coach Tom Crean can also be heard on weeknights during the season on the Bulldog Hotline, heard over most of the network stations.

SCOTT HOWARD

The voice of Scott Howard has become synonymous with Georgia sports and in particular, with Bulldog football and basketball. Howard returns for his 27th season behind the microphone at Georgia basketball games. First a color analyst with legendary voice Larry Munson, Howard will be working his 24th season as the Bulldogs' primary play-by-play announcer.

Howard was the sports director at Athens radio stations WNGC-WGAU for 14 years before joining IMG Sports in 2009.

A 1984 Georgia graduate, Howard began his association with Bulldog football as a color analyst alongside Munson in 1994. In 2007, he broadcasted play-by-play action in all of Georgia's road football games, and the next season he became the program's primary radio voice by the third game. Howard was also play-by-play announcer for Georgia baseball from 1990-96.

CHUCK DOWDLE

Native Atlantan Chuck Dowdle, one of the most prominent figures in the Atlanta sports scene, will return to the Georgia Bulldog Radio Network for the his ninth season as color analyst.

Dowdle retired from WSB-TV in 2009 after 24 years as weeknight sports anchor with the top-rated station. Dowdle also worked for WPLG in Miami from 1973-85. During that time, he hosted the Don ShulaTV Show and also announced football for the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Hurricanes, as well as the NASL's Ft. Lauderdale Strikers.

Scott Howard (right) and Chuck Dowdle will work their fourth season together in 2015-16.

During his time at WSB, Dowdle was involved with almost every aspect of Atlanta sports, from announcing Falcons' preseason games to hosting UGA football and basketball coaches' shows. He was also the host of "High-Q," a game show pitting some of the Atlanta region's brightest high-school students against one another in academic competition.

Dowdle attended UGA in his freshman year, where he played for the basketball team. He then transferred to Georgia State, where he was a pitcher for the baseball team in his junior and senior years, before graduating in 1972.

ADAM GILLESPIE

After serving as the back-up producer/engineer for the Georgia Radio Network last season, Adam Gillespie took over in a full-time role beginning with the 2020-21 campaign.

An Athens native who attended high school in Augusta, Gillespie joined the production staff at 680 The Fan in Atlanta in 2005. His role expanded to include producing the postgame show on the Atlanta Braves Network when the station won the team's broadcast rights in 2010. That same year, 680 became the official sports-talk partner of Georgia Athletics and Gillespie began producing Bulldog Roundtable, the station's 30-minute show devoted exclusively to UGA Athletics which airs on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

GEORGIA	Head Coach	2018-

The palpable excitement Tom Crean brought to his introductory press session as Georgia Basketball's 22nd head coach on March 16, 2018, has continued with his tireless effort to turn the Bulldogs into a national power.

During his initial meeting with the media, Crean enthusiastically professed his appreciation for UGA's reputation as one of the nation's premier public universities, which drew him to the job and his affinity for the Bulldogs' motto. He then laid out his plan to make Georgia one of the nation's premier programs.

"We come in knowing that we're coming into a world-class university," Crean stated. "I've been privileged to work at some great places. This is a world-class university that is world-known for what they do, for what they are about."

Quite a First Three Seasons

Crean's presence at Georgia has been extremely impactful, both on and off the court.

Between the lines, Crean's offensive-minded concepts have the Bulldogs scoring a pace seldom seen in Stegeman Coliseum. Georgia has reached the 90-point plateau 15 times in Crean's first 90 games with the Bulldogs. You have to count back 387 games – a span of 11-plus seasons for the 2006-07 campaign – to equate the time it took the Bulldogs to score 90 or more points prior to Crean's arrival.

As would be expected, those excessive scoring tallies have increased Georgia's overall offensive production. Crean's metalevel offensive mind is regularly recognized and lauded by basketball brightest pundits. Last season, the Bulldogs put up 77.5 points per game, their highest scoring average since the 2003-04 campaign. In fact, Crean's teams have produced two of Georgia's five highest scoring averages of the 2000s as the 2019-20 Bulldogs' 75.9 ppg clip is fourth best in this century.

A significant influx of talent has been making its way to Athens since Crean arrived. Georgia has inked six consensus top-100 prospects under Crean, as many as the Bulldogs did in the dozen prior recruiting cycles combined. Headlining that ledger was of course Anthony Edwards, the ballyhooed Atlanta native who lived up to his hype en route to winning SEC Freshman of the Year honors before becoming the No. 1 overall pick in the 2020 NBA Draft.

All of the aforementioned has only strengthened the love affair between Crean and the Bulldogs' fan base. In his first season, Georgia broke its all-time total attendance record at Stegeman Coliseum by more than 10,000 fans. A year later, that effort was shattered once again, with a new mark by more than 15,000 spectators. In addition, the Bulldogs' home average of 9,651 fans during the 2019-20 season ranks second all-time in UGA annals.

Back to Day One

Crean touched on the potential for all of the aforementioned during that introductory press conference when he admitted he always kept an eye on the Bulldogs.

"I've always paid attention to Georgia," Crean said. "You can't be in this business of college sports, college basketball, and not have a really good view of what it's all about at this school. I've paid attention from afar, and I've been an admirer from afar. When you're in a sports family like I am, you look at what's happened with the different sports teams and you're paying a lot more attention than just to basketball."

Crean paid homage to the Bulldogs' popular "Commit to the G" catchphrase, realizing that motto also will be one of the focal points of his task at UGA.

"We have got to find a group of people that are going to 'Commit to the G,'" Crean said. "I saw that long before today. I've been in Atlanta enough over the last year, I've seen that on billboards, and I think it's really cool."

The media certainly agreed Crean's press conference was a victory. Jeff Schultz of the Atlanta Journal-Constitution provided the most descriptive offering: "It would've ranked as one of the greatest pre-game speeches of all times if it wasn't just an introductory news conference. Part Zig Ziglar. Part Herb Brooks. Part Knute Rockne...He won the news conference. I was ready to run through a wall for him (or, as a 5-10, 58-year-old, into the wall)."

As a head coach prior to Georgia

Crean arrived in Athens with nearly two decades of experience regularly leading his teams to national rankings and post-season bids.

Crean compiled a 356-231 record in 18 combined seasons at Marquette and Indiana from 1999-2017. Those teams reached postseason play during 13 of those campaigns, with nine NCAA appearances and four NIT bids. Crean led Marquette to the 2003 NCAA Final Four and reached four Sweet 16s at Marquette and Indiana. All told, Crean's teams have been ranked in the Associated Press and/or USA Today polls during 12 seasons, including top-10 finishes in 2003 (No. 6), 2013 (No. 7) and 2016 (No. 9).

Individually, Crean has coached eight players who have won 10 All-America certificates. Thirteen of his players at MU and IU went on to play in the NBA. That ledger has grown to 15 since his arrival in Athens, with Nicolas Claxton drafted No. 32 overall in 2019 and Edwards being the top pick in 2020. Those additions have pushed the combined contracts of Crean's NBA proteges past the $700-million mark. Though Crean discusses the forenamed on-court success with great pride, he boasts with an equal amount of vigor that all 52 of his seniors at MU and IU earned a degree.

At Indiana

Crean compiled a 166-135 record in nine seasons at Indiana from 2008-17. His tenure can be broken down into two distinct segments. IU was 28-66 in Crean's first three seasons and 138-69 over the next six.

When Crean arrived in Bloomington, he inherited a program with only one returning player, a pending NCAA probation and scholarship restrictions due to poor academic performance. The Hoosiers faced the loss of two scholarships due to an 866 APR score. Under Crean, IU received an NCAA Public Recognition Award each of his last three years and had a perfect four-year mark of 1,000.

The Hoosiers thrived on the court during the latter two-thirds of Crean's tenure. Indiana won outright Big Ten titles in 2013 and 2016 and were ranked in each of those six seasons, including 11 weeks at No. 1 in 2012-13. During that span, IU also had the most potent offense in the Big Ten, leading the league in scoring (77.8 ppg), field goal percentage (47.7) and 3-point percentage (40.1). In fact, the Hoosiers led all Power 5 schools in field goal percentage in that time frame and in 3-point percentage since Crean joined the Hoosiers.

Crean was named National Coach of the Year in 2012 by ESPN and voted Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2016, the same season he was a finalist for Naismith National Coach of the Year honors. Three Hoosiers earned All-America accolades under Crean - Cody Zeller (2012 & 2013), Victor Oladipo (2013) and "Yogi" Ferrell (2016). At IU, 21 of Crean's Hoosiers graduated, with six - including Oladipo - securing their bachelor's in less than four years and five of those earning master's degrees.

At Marquette

Crean served as head coach at Marquette from 1999-2008, leading the program to the 2003 Final Four and four more NCAA bids. In his nine years with the Golden Eagles, Crean's teams earned five NCAA Tournament bids, one more than the previous four Marquette coaches had in the 16 years prior to his arrival. Marquette also participated in three NITs, reaching the 2004 quarterfinals, and obtained AP top-25 rankings during six of Crean's last seven seasons in Milwaukee. The Golden Eagles earned final national rankings of No. 9 in 2003, No. 12 in 2002, No. 20 in 2007 and No. 25 in 2008.

Crean was named National Coach of the Year in 2002 and Conference USA Coach of the Year in both 2002 and 2003. His star pupil, Dwyane Wade, earned C-USA Player of the Year honors in 2003 as well. Three Golden Eagles earned All-America accolades - Wade (2002 & 2003), Travis Diener (2005) and Dominic James (2007). After Crean departed for Indiana, two of his players were named All-America - Jerel McNeal (2009) and Lazar Hayward (2010).

As an assistant coach

Crean's winning ways were well established before he became a head coach. From 1989-99, Crean was a member of the staffs at Michigan State (under Jud Heathcoate and Tom Izzo), Western Kentucky (under Ralph Willard) and Pitt (also under Willard). Those 10 teams combined to win four regular-season and two conference tournament titles. They also reached postseason play eight times (five NAAs and three NITs). The season before assuming the reigns at Marquette, Crean helped Michigan State reach the 1999 Final Four.

Personal

A native of Mount Pleasant, Mich., Crean earned his bachelor's in Parks and Recreation with a minor in Psychology from Central Michigan in 1989. While at CMU, Crean coached at Alma College and Mount Pleasant. Crean received CMU's Distinguished Alumni Award in September 2014. He was honored at the 2014 Dick Vitale Gala for his outstanding contributions in support of the V Foundation.

While on the staff at Western Kentucky, Crean met and married the former Joani Harbaugh. They have three children: Megan (26), Riley (22) and Ainsley (16). Joani's father, Jack, and brothers, John and Jim, are highly successful football coaches. Jack was a long-time head coach at WKU, where he won the 2002 Division I-AA national title. In 2013, John (Baltimore Ravens) and Jim (San Francisco 49ers) guided their teams to a historic Super Bowl matchup. John is still with the Ravens, while Jim is currently head coach at Michigan.

Steve McClain joined the Georgia staff in April 2020 after spending the previous five seasons as head coach at University of Illinois Chicago. McClain, who was a member of Tom Crean's coaching staff at Indiana from 2010-15, sports 39 seasons of collegiate experience, including 18 as a head coach.

McClain led UIC to consistent success. The Flames won 16 or more games during each of his last four seasons, just the second time UIC did so in the program's 73 seasons all time. The Flames earned two postseason bids, reaching the semifinals of the 2017 CBI and finishing as runner-up in the 2018 CIT. UIC also advanced to the title game of the 2020 Horizon League Tournament, a first for the Flames since 2004.

The UIC record books were often updated on McClain's watch, with team season records for points (2,749 in 2016-17), 3-point field goals (303 in 2018-19), rebounds (1,426 in 2016-17), assists (524 in 2016-17) and blocks (242 in 2017-18).

Individually, Flames earned a plethora of Horizon League honors, headlined by Dikembe Dixson as 2016 Freshman of the Year, Tai Odiase as 2017 and 2018 Defensive Player of the Year and Godwin Boahen as 2018 6th Man of the Year. Tarkus Ferguson was named All-Freshman in 2017 and All-Horizon in 2019 and 2020.

While McClain was at Indiana, the Hoosiers earned three NCAA bids, with back-to-back trips to the "Sweet 16" in 2012 and 2013, and won the outright Big Ten Championship in 2013.

McClain also helped Indiana land recruiting classes ranked No. 7 in 2012, No. 4 in 2013 and No. 21 in 2014 and then played a pivotal role in developing NBA lottery picks Victor Oladipo (No. 2 overall by Orlando in 2013), Cody Zeller (No. 4 overall by Charlotte in 2013) and Noah Vonleh (No. 9 overall by Charlotte in 2014). Oladipo and Zeller earned first-team All-America honors, and Oladipo was named 2013 Sporting News National Player of the Year.

Before Indiana, McClain spent three seasons at Colorado, including two as the associate head coach. He helped develop guard Alec Burks, who earned Big 12 Freshman of the Year honors in 2010 and was later selected by the Utah with the No. 12 pick in the 2011 NBA Draft.

McClain was head coach at Wyoming for nine seasons, where he is one of only two coaches to post three consecutive 20-win seasons. McClain led the Cowboys to Mountain West titles in 2001 and 2002 and four postseason appearances. Wyoming reached the 2002 NAAs and advanced to the Round of 32 after upsetting Gonzaga and also secured NIT bids in 1999, 2001 and 2003.

McClain helped a dramatic turnaround at TCU. The season prior to his arrival, the Horned Frogs finished 7-20. Over the next four seasons, TCU was 81-44 with postseason bids to the 1997 NIT and 1998 NCAA Tournament. In McClain's final season, the Horned Frogs finished No. 15 in the final AP poll after becoming the first team to go undefeated in WAC history and leading the nation in scoring at 97.2 points per game.

McClain compiled a 91-16 (.850) record in three seasons as head coach at Hutchinson Community College, culminating with National Coach of the Year honors after leading the Dragons to the 1994 national title. He served as an assistant coach at Hutchinson for five seasons from 1986-91, helping guide the Dragons to the 1988 national title.

McClain was also an assistant coach at Independence Community College and the head coach at Sioux Empire Junior College. He began his coaching career while still an undergraduate at Chadron State College, his alma mater, from 1982-84.

CAREER PATH

OKLAHOMA	Graduate Assistant	2011-12
ORAL ROBERTS	Assistant Coach	2012-16
STEPHEN F. AUSTIN	Assistant Coach	2016-21
GEORGIA	Assistant Coach	2021-

Wade Mason joined the Georgia staff as assistant coach in June 2021. He arrived in Athens after spending the previous five seasons at Stephen F. Austin.

Mason helped guide Stephen F. Austin to the 2018 Southland Conference Tournament title, resulting in an NCAA Tournament bid, and the 2020 Southland regular-season crown, when the Lumberjacks won a league-record 19 conference games. SFA wrapped up each of those seasons with 28 wins, finishing 28-7 in 2017-18 and 28-3 in 2019-20, including a historic upset of No. 1-ranked Duke at Cameron Indoor Stadium in November 2019.

Stephen F. Austin was 104-46 in Mason's five seasons, with additional road victories at Power-5 programs LSU and Baylor.

Mason helped recruit a trio of Georgia natives to SFA who played key roles in that success – Kevon Harris from Ellenwood and Martin Luther King High School, who is Lumberjacks' all-time leading scorer; Aaron Augustin from Suwanee and Miller Grove High School, who was a Southland Conference All-Defensive team honoree in 2018; and Devontae Fitzgerald, an Atlanta native who played at Tucker High School and averaged 11.3 ppg as a graduate transfer.

Stephen F. Austin has been one of the nation's fastest and most efficient teams over the past half decade. The Lumberjacks led the nation in steals during both the 2017-18 (10.3 spg) and 2019-20 (10.5 spg) seasons and also finished fourth nationally in 2020-21 (9.5 spg). SFA has ranked among the top-10 teams in the country in field goal percentage twice during each of the past two seasons – No. 7 in 2019-20 (.491) and No. 2 in 2020-21 (.521).

Individually, Lumberjack players have collected 10 All-Southland Conference honors during the last five years, headlined by Harris being named 2020 Player of the Year and Gavin Kensmil receiving 2020 Newcomer of the Year accolades.

Prior to his tenure in Nacogdoches, Mason also served as an assistant coach at Oral Roberts from 2012-16 and as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma for the 2011-12 season. At Oral Roberts, Mason helped the Golden Eagles to a pair of postseason appearances, reaching the third round of the 2013 CIT in ORU's first postseason bid since 1975 and the second round of the 2015 CBI.

A native of New Orleans, La., Mason was a standout on St. Augustine High School's 1995 USA Today national championship team. He then played two seasons at Tyler Junior College and two at Tulane, where he helped lead the Green Wave to a Conference-USA National Division title and an NIT berth in 2000.

A 2001 graduate of Tulane with a degree in media arts and business studies, Mason is the father of two children – Jaila and Wade III.

DREXEL	Operations Assistant	2015-16
BROWN	Assistant Coach	2016-17
HARTFORD	Assistant Coach	2017-19
GEORGIA	Assistant Coach	2019-

John Linehan, one of the premier defensive players in college basketball history, joined the Georgia Basketball staff as an assistant coach in May 2019.

"I'm excited about adding John Linehan to this staff," head coach Tom Crean said. "I simply love his background and his story. He has a solid foundation in coaching and amazing playing experience. He is the all-time NCAA D-I steals leader, was two-time Big East Defensive Player of the Year and had a long and highly successful professional career overseas. He grew up in the same area as Kobe Bryant, and I heard Kobe say one time that John Linehan was the toughest defender he ever faced."

Linehan has spent the past two seasons as an assistant coach at Hartford following stints at Brown, Drexel and Temple.

"I'm extremely excited to be joining Georgia Basketball," Linehan said. "Tom Crean is a great coach, and Georgia is a big-time school with a great reputation, both for its academics and its athletics. I'm excited about the opportunity to help Georgia Basketball grow to even greater heights."

Linehan was one of the most decorated defensive players in NCAA history at Providence. He holds the Division I career record with 385 steals and was the consensus 2002 National Defensive Player of the Year, being honored as such by the NABC, ESPN.com and College Insider.com. Linehan also won the 2002 Bob Cousy Award as the top senior in New England who is less than six-feet tall. He was the Big East Defensive Player of the Year in both 2001 and 2002 while also earning second-team All-Big East honors in each of those seasons.

Linehan led the Big East in steals in conference action during three of his four seasons with the Friars and holds the league single-game steals record with 11 against Rutgers on Jan. 22, 2002.

Linehan enjoyed a long and successful professional playing career from 2002-14. He was named Defensive Player of the Year in France's Pro A League four times with three different teams – in 2005 and 2006 for Paris-Levallois, in 2010 for Cholet and in 2011 for Nancy. Linehan also was the Defensive Player of the Year in Estonia's Pro A League in 2009.

In addition, Linehan played for the Harlem Globetrotters in 2004, for the Dakota Wizards of the Continental Basketball Association and for the Greenville Groove of the NBA D-League.

Prior to his most recent stint at Hartford, Linehan spent the 2016-17 season as an assistant coach at Brown. He was an operations assistant at Drexel during the 2015-16 campaign and worked as a graduate assistant at Temple in 2014-15. Linehan also served as a volunteer assistant for the Delaware 87ers and the Philadelphia 76ers in the summer of 2015.

Two of the five staffs featuring Linehan have advanced to postseason play. At Temple, Linehan helped the Owls post a 26-11 record and reach the semifinals of the NIT. During his tenure at Hartford, the Hawks finished third and fourth in the America East in 2018 and 2019, respectively, and earned a postseason invitation to the CIT in 2018.

Linehan, who earned his bachelor's degree in Health Policy and Management from Providence in 2002, has one son, Jaylen.

BRIAN FISH

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT
MARSHALL '88 3RD SEASON AT GEORGIA

Brian Fish joined the Georgia staff as Director of Player Development in 2019. Fish sports a long and consistent record of winning basketball at the highest level. He has helped seven programs reach the NCAA Tournament player or a coach. All told, 18 of 36 teams he has been associated with advanced to postseason play when contested.

Prior to arriving in Athens, Fish spent the five seasons as the head coach at Montana State, where he led the Bobcats to numerous team and individual milestones. In Feb. 2016, during Fish's second season, Montana State connected on the third-most 3-pointers ever in NCAA Division I history against Northern Arizona (25). In 2016-17, Fish led the Bobcats to their most wins since 2002. That same season, Montana State finished ranked among national leaders in scoring offense (No. 35 at 80.0 ppg) and 3-pointers (No. 10 at 10.0 3pg). In 2019, Montana State led the Big Sky Conference in scoring in league games (81.8 ppg), and the Bobcats won their first Big Sky tourney victory in a decade.

Fish is the only coach to sign and coach consecutive Big Sky Freshman of the Year award winners (Tyler Hall in 2016, Harald Frey in 2017). Hall and Frey went on to finish ranked No. 1 and No. 3, respectively, among Montana State's career scoring leaders. Hall broke the Bobcats' 59-year-old career scoring record and became just the 69th Division I player to reach 2,500 points. He finished his ranked No. 9 in NCAA D-I history in career 3-pointers made with 431.

Fish's impact at Montana State continued after he departed when Kelgin Blevins joined the Portland Trail Blazers in 2020 to become the program's first player ever to play in an NBA regular-season game.

Fish's career path includes a combined 25 seasons at Oregon, Creighton, San Diego, TCU, Kansas State and Marshall, helping those schools earned bids to seven NCAA Tournaments, seven NITs and one CBI.

From 2010-14 Fish was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Oregon. The Ducks compiled 97 victories and reached postseason play all four seasons, highlighted by a trip to the NCAA "Sweet 16" in 2013.

Fish spent a combined eight seasons during two stints at Creighton. The Bluejays' earned five postseason bids with Fish, trips to the 2005 and 2007 NCAA Tournaments and bids to the 2006, 2008 and 2009 NITs.

Fish was on the staffs at TCU and San Diego from 1996-2004. In six campaigns with the Horned Frogs, TCU reached the 1998 NCAA Tournament and the 1997 and 1999 NITs. Fish's tenure at San Diego included the Toreros winning the 2003 WCC title to secure an NCAA bid.

Fish was film coordinator for Kansas State teams that reached the 1993 NAAs and 1994 NIT. He began his coaching career at Marshall, his alma mater, where he was a graduate assistant during the 1989-90 campaign before being promoted to assistant coach for two seasons.

A native of Seymour, Ind., Fish played for two seasons (1984-86) at Western Kentucky, helping the Hilltoppers to a 23-8 record and an NCAA Tournament bid as a sophomore. He transferred to Marshall, and during his time there the Thundering Herd compiled a 64-29 record, including a pair of NCAA appearances and two Southern Conference titles.

In 2009, Fish was named to the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame Silver Anniversary Team, a class that also included Steve Alford, Gregg Popovich and Scott Skiles. He earned his bachelor's in Sport Management from Marshall in 1989, and he and his wife Melyssa reside in Athens.

J.D. POWELL

DIRECTOR OF RECRUITING & BASKETBALL OPERATIONS
CLEMSON '01 1ST SEASON AT GEORGIA

J.D. Powell was named Georgia's director of recruiting and operations in June 2021. Powell spent the previous seven seasons on the staff at College of Charleston, including the last two as associate head coach.

Powell's 22 seasons of collegiate experience have been spent almost exclusively in Charleston. He joined Earl Grant's staff in 2014 after serving as an assistant coach at The Citadel from 2010-14 and at Charleston Southern from 2004-10.

College of Charleston enjoyed tremendous success with Powell. The Cougars went from winning just nine games in 2014-15 to 92 victories over the next four seasons. Player development and retention were cornerstones of the program. The Cougars produced 11 all-conference honorees in that span, including back-to-back NBA Draft picks in 2019 and 2020, while also producing 24 graduates and only six transfers.

Powell served two seasons as director of basketball operations before becoming an assistant coach in 2016-17 and being promoted to associate head coach after three seasons. In Powell's first season as an assistant coach, the Cougars finished 25-10 and reached the Colonial Athletic Association Tournament championship game, resulting in an NIT bid. The Cougars went 26-8 the following year. After finishing as CAA regular-season co-champions, Charleston won the conference tournament to earn its first NCAA Tournament bid since 1999. The Cougars followed that effort with a 24-9 campaign in 2018-19.

While at The Citadel, Powell was instrumental in the Bulldogs signing two of the highest-rated recruits in program history. At Charleston Southern, he helped ink classes ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in the Big South Conference by Rivals.com in 2006, 2007 and 2008.

A 2001 Clemson graduate, Powell began working with the Tigers' as a manager but later became a walk-on and eventually earned a scholarship. He was a member of Clemson's 1999 NIT runner-up squad. Powell spent two seasons as a graduate manager at Furman from 2002-04 while also working in operations for the NBDL's Greenville Groove.

A native of Westminster, S.C., Powell received his bachelor's in speech and communications from Clemson in 2001 and also earned a master's in technology and human resource development in 2003. Powell and his wife, Kerri, have three boys – Jack (11), Tucker (9) and Hampton (6).

DAVID
GALE

ASSOCIATE TO THE HEAD COACH / DIRECTOR OF STRATEGY
LOYOLA-CHICAGO '07 1ST SEASON AT GEORGIA

HEATHER
McCORMICK

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL ADMINISTRATION
GEORGIA '94 18TH SEASON AT GEORGIA

David Gale joined the Georgia staff as Associate to the Head Coach / Director of Strategy in 2021, bringing with him an impressive wealth of professional basketball experience both in the United States and Europe.

Prior to arriving in Athens, Gale spent the previous three seasons coaching in Europe. He was the head coach of BC Nevezis Opiet in Lithuania's Lietuvos krepšinio lyga (LKL) for the 2021-21 campaign.

He was previously an assistant coach for MHP Riesen Ludwigsburg in the Basketball Bundesliga (BBL), helping the franchise improve from 10th during the 2018-19 season to second place in the league standings in 2020 season, with an appearance in the tournament finals. From 2018-20, Gale also was the head coach for Porsche BBA, which he led to the German U-19 Championship in 2020 and was named NBBL Coach of the Year and Coach of the Year by Eurobasket.com.

Gale established a championship pedigree in the NBA. He spent more than a decade working within three NBA franchises from 2007-18.

He began his career as an assistant video coordinator for the Los Angeles Clippers from 2007-11. He worked with the Toronto Raptors from 2011-17, first serving as a video coordinator and player development bench coach for four seasons before becoming an assistant coach and the offensive coordinator for Raptors 905, the franchise's D League team, from 2015-17. The Raptors advanced to the NBA Playoffs in 2014 and 2015 and during Gale's second season with Raptors 905 the team captured the 2017 D League Championship. That season, Raptors 905 finished with a league-best 39-11 regular-season record and went 6-1 in the Playoffs.

Gale spent the following season as an assistant coach and the defensive coordinator for the Delaware 87ers, the Philadelphia 76ers D League squad.

Throughout his professional career, Gale also has worked for the Tim Grgurich Basketball Camp from 2014-19, Adidas Nations from 2014-16 and Basketball Without Borders Europe in 2019.

A native of Sherman Oaks, Calif., Gale wrapped up his prep career playing for Brewster Academy during the 2002-03 season. Gale then played collegiately at Loyola University Chicago, where he was a four-year letterwinner from 2003-07 under both Larry Farmer and Jim Whitsell. The Ramblers reached the Horizon League Tournament semifinals during Gale's junior and senior seasons. In addition, he was selected for the U.S. team that participated in the 2006 Maccabi International Games in Australia.

During his collegiate career Gale began eying a career in coaching. He served as a video coordinator during the NBA Summer League from 2004-07.

Gale earned his bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a focus on Sports Management from Loyola-Chicago in 2007.

Heather McCormick, one of the greatest gymnasts in Georgia history as the former Heather Stepp, joined the Georgia Basketball staff as Director of Administration in 2019. She is responsible for administrative and logistical matters within day-to-day operations, alumni relations and liaison to other Athletic Association departments.

McCormick has spent much of her professional career at her alma mater. She served as Director of Administration for Georgia Gymnastics from 2017-19, was a Regional Director of Development and Alumni Relations for UGA from 2011-17, worked as a Career Development Consultant for the Athletic Association from 2007-12 and was Assistant Director of Development from 1996-98.

McCormick is one of Georgia's most decorated student-athletes in any sport. She won three individual NCAA titles (vault in 1992 and 1993 and floor exercise in 1993) and helped the Gym Dogs capture three straight SEC Championships and a national title as a team. McCormick became Georgia's first-ever SEC Gymnast of the Year in 1993 and all told, she earned All-America honors nine times. At the time of her graduation, McCormick held the school record on all five events.

McCormick, a native of Mt. Clements, Mich., was inducted into UGA's Circle of Honor, the Athletic Association's highest all-sport honor, in 2006 and into the State of Georgia's Sports Hall of Fame in 2012.

McCormick's career is even more impressive considering she suffered a season-ending elbow injury while warming up on the vault at a meet in Utah in 1991. McCormick was given just a 10 percent chance of regaining normal use in her arm.

In 1992, McCormick returned to win the vault title at the NCAAs and also finish as runner-up in the all-around. She was unanimously voted to receive the Honda Inspiration Award, which is presented to a female athlete who shows courage, perseverance and determination in overcoming obstacles to compete athletically.

McCormick earned three degrees from UGA: a bachelor's in Accounting (1994), a master's in Sport Management (1996) and a doctorate in Sport Management and Policy (2014). McCormick's husband Matt was a letterwinning linebacker for the Georgia football team. They have two sons, Wade and Shane.

SEAN HAYES

ASSOCIATE STRENGTH & CONDITIONING DIRECTOR
SPRINGFIELD '96 11TH SEASON AT GEORGIA

Sean Hayes oversees all aspects of the Bulldogs' strength and conditioning program. He has done so since joining the Athletic Association staff as Assistant Strength & Conditioning Director in 2010 and has since been promoted to Associate Director.

Hayes, who sports more than two decades of experience in both the professional and collegiate levels, also works with Georgia's volleyball program and has previously worked with women's golf.

Hayes came to Georgia after four seasons in a similar capacity with the NFL's Buffalo Bills. Before his tenure in pro football, Hayes spent more than a decade in intercollegiate athletics.

Most recently on the collegiate level, he served as the strength and conditioning coach for the Clemson basketball team from 2004-06.

Hayes was the first full-time Director of Strength and Conditioning for the entire 41-varsity sport program at Harvard University from 2002-04. He spent three years working with the Crimson's football team, men's and women's basketball teams, as well as both ice hockey squads.

Hayes' other collegiate strength and conditioning positions include stints at Tulsa, Springfield College (his alma mater), Yale and Boston University.

In May 2014, Hayes was awarded the status of Master Strength and Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association, which represents the organization's highest individual honor. He is one of only two SEC men's basketball strength and conditioning coaches who has earned the MSCC recognition.

Hayes was inducted into the Peabody (Mass.) High School Athletic Hall of Fame. He lettered in football, hockey and lacrosse for the Tanners. Hayes excelled as goalie for Peabody's lacrosse team and went on to play for Springfield College and the Boston Blazers.

Hayes earned two degrees from Springfield. He received his bachelor's in health fitness in 1996 and then completed a master's in education (applied exercise science) in 1999. Hayes is married to the former Susanne Esteban, and the couple has two daughters Kaylie and Ella.

LANCE SCHUEMANN

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC TRAINER
FLORIDA '07 4TH SEASON AT GEORGIA

Lance Schuemann joined the UGA Athletic Association's Sports Medicine staff in July 2018 as an associate athletic trainer. His primary responsibilities include prevention, immediate care, management, treatment and rehabilitation of athletic injuries for the Georgia Basketball program.

Prior to joining the Georgia staff, Schuemann spent the previous five seasons as the athletic trainer for the men's basketball and women's golf programs at Wyoming. His efforts in Laramie helped translate to an extremely successful run for the Cowboys on the hardwood. Wyoming averaged 20 wins per season and reached postseason play three times from 2013-18. Most notably, the Cowboys won the 2015 Mountain West Conference Tournament to secure an NCAA Tournament bid. They also won the 2017 College Basketball Invitational (CBI) title.

Schuemann was the athletic trainer for the men's basketball and women's tennis teams at Charleston Southern for two seasons from 2011-13 before moving on to Wyoming. He served as an intern athletic trainer at Florida, his alma mater, during the 2010-11 academic year. He worked with the men's basketball and men's tennis programs, which reached the "Elite Eight" and Round of 16 of their respective NCAA Tournaments that year. In addition, Schuemann was an approved clinical instructor while in Gainesville.

Schuemann received his bachelor's degree in athletic training from Florida in Dec. 2007. He worked as a student athletic trainer for the Gators' men's basketball team that won the 2007 NCAA Championship. Schuemann earned his master's in sports administration from Valparaiso in May 2010. His certifications include: Corrective Exercise Specialist from the National Association of Sports Medicine (NASM), Board Certification from the National Athletic Trainer Association (NATA), CPR/AED from the American Red Cross and Level 1 status from the Titleist Performance Institute.

Schuemann married the former Tracy Campbell, the former athletic trainer for Vanderbilt Baseball, in October of 2021.

JORDAN
LANGE

DIRECTOR OF CREATIVE SERVICES & SOCIAL MEDIA
UM-FLINT '12 1ST SEASON AT GEORGIA

Jordan Lange joined the UGA Athletic Association as Director of Creative Services and Social Media for Georgia Basketball in the summer of 2021.

Lange arrived in Athens after previous successful stints at Oregon State and Wyoming.

From 2019-21, Lange was the director of graphic design for Oregon State's football program. He created and maintained brand guidelines, while developing a unique and consistent brand for the Beavers. Lange worked with OSU's videographers, photographers and social media team to tell story of OSU football. Those efforts featured personalized recruiting campaigns, as well as creating all other internal and external materials.

Lange was director of graphic design at Wyoming from 2018-19. There he coordinated and monitored projects within the design team to create engaging content for Wyoming's 13 different athletic programs. Those efforts included social media content, printed materials and recruiting graphics. Lange also developed and managed the athletic association's first project management system for its graphic efforts.

Prior to working in college athletics, Lange was a senior graphic designer for Diplomat Specialty Pharmacy in Flint, Mich., from 2016-18. In addition to creating digital, printed and video materials, he taught classes to employees on utilizing product management methodologies to keep projects on track, providing updates and transparency to daily progress.

A native of Davison, Mich., Lange graduated from the University of Michigan-Flint with a bachelor's degree in Graphic Design in 2012. Jordan and his wife, Kayla, have two sons, Bentley and Blaine, and are expecting a third boy in January 2022.

CAROLYN WALLACE

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF EVENT MANAGEMENT
RANDOLPH-MACON '10

Carolyn Wallace joined UGA Athletics as Associate Director of Event Management in 2017.

Wallace oversees event management for basketball and is facility manager for Stegeman Coliseum and its Training Facility.

Wallace served as event operations manager at Colorado State from 2015-16 where she oversaw gameday management for women's soccer, women's basketball, track & field and women's tennis. At Wake Forest from 2014-15, Wallace was gameday manager and budget manager for women's soccer, women's tennis and track & field. She also was a tournament manager during the 2014 Men's Soccer NCAA Tournament.

Wallace spent one year each at Villanova (2013-14) and Hartford (2012-13), coordinating game management for four and five sports, respectively.

Wallace earned bachelor's degrees from Randolph-Macon and Eastern Connecticut State and was an Academic All-America swimmer for both schools. She added a master's in Sport Management from Springfield in 2013. The former Carolyn Jenkins married Ben Wallace in July 2021.

WENDY WHITTINGTON

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR - TICKET OPERATIONS
GEORGIA SOUTHERN '03

Wendy Whittington, who joined the UGA Athletic Association staff in 2008 as Assistant Ticket Manager, was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director of Ticket Operations in 2019. Whittington's responsibilities include managing donor priority for men's basketball, coordinating football parking and overseeing the student ticketing process. She is also responsible for daily management of the UGA ticket office and daily ticket operations at athletic events.

From 2005-08, Whittington worked in the ticket office at Georgia Tech. During that time, she also worked as a member of the Atlanta Braves' premium staff which oversaw the suites and club at Turner Field.

Whittington received an associate's degree in business administration from Darton College in 2002, a bachelor's in business administration with a focus in marketing from Georgia Southern in 2003 and a master's in sport administration from Georgia State. She was a graduate assistant in the Georgia State compliance office from 2004-05.

A native of Moultrie, Ga., Whittington is a 2000 graduate of Colquitt County High, where she was a four-year letterwinner in softball and the 2000 Class AAAA State Offensive Player of the Year.

JOHN BATEMAN

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR - MARKETING & MBB FACILITATOR GEORGIA '91

John Bateman, who with combined experiences as a UGA student and full-time employee has been a member of the Athletic Association staff for more than three decades, was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director of Marketing in the summer of 2014 after serving eight years as Director of Marketing.

In addition to being the sport facilitator for men's basketball, Bateman is responsible for coordinating ticket sales plans, venue concessions and merchandise contracts, marketing and promotional activities on georgiadogs.com and gameday print operations. He is also the liaison between the Athletic Association and the Redcoat Marching Band and all other athletic bands.

Bateman joined the Georgia promotions office in 1994 and served as Assistant Director for three years. He was promoted to Associate Director in 1997 before being named the Director in 2004. Bateman was promoted once again in 2014 and has served as the facilitator for men's basketball since.

Bateman is a "double-dog" with two degrees from University of Georgia – a bachelor's in Business Administration in 1991 and master's Sport Management in 1993. As an undergraduate, he served as a manager for the men's basketball team, including UGA's 1990 SEC Championship squad. The Bulldogs reached postseason play during three of Bateman's four years with the team, including the 1987 and 2000 NCAA Tournaments and the 1988 NIT.

Bateman began his professional career by working as the championships and officiating assistant at the Southeastern Conference from 1993-94 before returning to his alma mater in 1994.

A native of Albany, Ga., Bateman is married to the former Jill Sirmans, a native of Valdosta, Ga. He is an avid walker/runner who has run the last 14 editions of the Peachtree Road Race.

DARRICE
GRIFFIN

SENIOR DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
TEXASTECH '07

Darrice Griffin was named Senior Deputy Director of Athletics on January 1, 2021, after serving as Deputy Director of Athletics of Administration at UGA since December 2017. Griffin's responsibilities have included the day-to-day oversight responsibilities for some internal operations including Human Resources and strategic organizational advancement of the Athletics Association. She also serves as the Deputy Title IX Coordinator and Sports Facilitator for several sports programs. In addition, Griffin represents the Athletics Association within various SEC and institutional leadership groups.

Griffin previously served as a senior member of the athletic administration at the University of Massachusetts from 2015-17. She served as Deputy Director of Athletics from July 2017-December 2017, after holding the position of Senior Associate Director of Athletics for Internal Operations for two years. Additionally, Griffin was also the department's Senior Woman Administrator during her entire tenure in Amherst.

As Deputy Director at UMass she oversaw day-to-day operations relating to student-athletes, facilities and competitions, while also serving on numerous campus committees and as the liaison with many campus constituents. Griffin had administrative oversight responsibilities for a number of Minutemen sports, including football, women's basketball, men's and women's lacrosse, field hockey and softball.

Prior to Amherst, Griffin spent the previous six years (2010-2015) at Columbia University, including the last four as Associate Athletics Director for Intercollegiate Sports Programs. She oversaw a number of sports programs, was the University's liaison to Barnard College – Columbia's partner institution in New York City – and was responsible for gender and diversity initiatives within the department of athletics.

With the Lions, Griffin had oversight for men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer, softball and baseball. She worked alongside the offices of admissions and financial aid, while also assisting in fundraising and development initiatives for both the athletic department at-large and her assigned sport programs. Griffin played a role in several student-athlete initiatives, including Columbia's The First-Year Transition Program and The Leaders for Life Program.

Within the University itself, Griffin was an active member of the President's Advisory Committee on Sexual Assault, had a leadership role on the University Bystander Intervention Task Force and played a key role in the University-wide initiative Step-Up.

Griffin originally joined the Lions as Director of Women's Basketball Operations and Special Projects in August 2009 before moving into the senior leadership position the following summer.

A native of Seagraves, Texas, Griffin was a standout basketball student-athlete at Texas Tech, graduating in 2007 with cum laude honors in psychology. She was a four-time recipient of the Texas Tech Student-Athlete Merit Award, a two-time Academic All-Big 12 Conference honoree and was named an Arthur Ashe Sports Scholar in 2007.

Griffin comes from an elite basketball family. Her mother, Tami Wilson, played at Texas Tech from 1990-92 and her sister, Teddy, also played for the Lady Raiders from 2005-08. Griffin was the 2004 Gatorade Player of the Year in Texas and also was an All-Texas First-Team selection and a McDonald's All-American.

JOSH BROOKS

J. REID PARKER DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
LSU '02

Josh Brooks was named J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Jan. 6, 2021, after serving 11 years at UGA most recently as Senior Deputy Director of Athletics.

Brooks returned to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics after serving as Deputy Athletics Director at the University of Louisiana Monroe from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15. Brooks was promoted to Deputy Athletic Director at UGA in May 2018, and in January, 2020, was named Senior Deputy Director of Athletics.

Brooks served as Director of Athletics at Millsaps prior to his tenure at ULM. He had previously served in capacities at UGA as Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14).

During his tenure at UGA, Brooks worked closely with former Director of Athletics Greg McGarity overseeing internal and external for all athletic operations. He has served as the liaison with the Office of University Architects on all athletic construction projects and with several campus departments as well as the president's office. His responsibilities at UGA have included overseeing the departments of facility support, graphics and design and turf management.

He has been involved in the scheduling of future football games as well as overseeing bowl game operations. In addition, his responsibilities included assisting with the development and management of facilities, new construction projects for the Athletic Association and planning the 2013 Jason Aldean Concert in Sanford Stadium. Brooks has also served as the sport facilitator for football and men's and women's track and field and cross country.

During his time at Millsaps, Brooks revamped the Major game-day experience. He created the kid's zone, specialized concessions and partnerships with youth sports leagues. Partnerships with the Jackson Public Schools, the Jackson Zoo, the National Guard and the Boy and Girl Scouts of America added to game days. This enhanced experience helped Brooks solicit over $100K in sponsorship opportunities.

Brooks also established a department-wide fundraising campaign that led to a 150 percent increase in Major-Club donations. Capping off this effort was the creation of a standalone Hall of Fame event at the Capital Club and the Mary Ann Edge Golf Tournament held at Patrick Farms golf course.

The Majors also saw great athletic success in Brooks' first year. The Majors enjoyed two SAA regular-season championships, captured by the men's soccer team and the women's basketball team. The Millsaps' baseball team also earned a trip to the West Regional tournament. The student-athletes also shined in the classroom. Millsaps' student-athletes had an overall grade-point-average of 3.0 in the 2014-15 academic year. Over 130 Majors' earned Academic All-Conference honors.

Brooks also served as director of football operations at the ULM beginning in 2004, and in 2007 ULM became bowl eligible for the first time in school history after beating Alabama. Brooks gained experience as a student at LSU, working as an equipment manager and a student assistant coach. During his four years, the Tigers participated in the 2000 Peach Bowl, 2002 Sugar Bowl, and won the 2001 SEC title.

A native of Hammond, La., he graduated from LSU with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his Master's degree in Sport Management from The University of Georgia. He and his wife, Lillie, have twin sons, Jackson and James, born in July of 2009 and a third son, Davis, born in March of 2012.

JERE W. MOREHEAD

22ND PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

President Jere W. Morehead began his tenure as the 22nd University of Georgia President on July 1, 2013. Under his leadership, the University has risen in the rankings of the best public colleges and universities and has completed a series of initiatives to enhance student learning and success, including a requirement for experiential learning for all undergraduates.

Additionally, the University completed the most successful capital campaign in its history, raising $1.45 billion, and launched an Innovation District initiative to create UGA's campus of the future, where students and faculty will partner with industry to generate ideas and solutions to continue the University's role as a powerful driver of economic development in Georgia. During President Morehead's tenure, UGA has increased its research expenditures by 41% and has been ranked among the top five universities in the U.S. for research-based products reaching the marketplace for the past seven years. UGA was ranked No. 1 in the nation for FY2019 and FY2017.

In keeping with his focus on student success, President Morehead launched the ALL Georgia Program to support students from rural areas and created the Double Dawgs program, which enables students to save time and money by earning an undergraduate and graduate degree in five years or less. A UGA education is in greater demand than ever, with a record 39,500 applications submitted for a spot in the Class of 2025 and an admission rate under 39%.

President Morehead has served the University of Georgia since 1986 in both faculty and administrative roles. Before becoming President, he was Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost from 2010 to 2013. Prior to 2010, he held several key administrative assignments, including Vice President for Instruction, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, Associate Provost and Director of the Honors Program, and acting Executive Director of Legal Affairs.

He is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as Editor-in-Chief of the American Business Law Journal.

President Morehead serves as Co-Chair of the University Leadership Forum, a national initiative led by the Council on Competitiveness. He also serves as Chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Board of Directors, a member of the NCAA Division I Administrative Committee, and a member of the NCAA Board of Governors. He previously served on the NCAA Presidential Forum; the Working Group on Name, Image, and Likeness; and the Federal and State Legislation Working Group. He is President of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and Chair of the SEC Executive Committee. He formerly served as Vice President of the SEC and Chair of the SEC Working Group on Compliance, Enforcement, and Governance. Additional service includes membership on the boards of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, Georgia Research Alliance, University System of Georgia Foundation, Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education, and Emory University Candler School of Theology.

In 2021, he received the Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education District III for outstanding leadership and service in support of education. He has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award—UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence, the Richard B. Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award. He also earned the UGA School of Law's premier honor for alumni, the Distinguished Service Scroll Award.

President Morehead holds a bachelor's degree from Georgia State University and a law degree from the University of Georgia.

ATHLETIC BOARD

The business and affairs of the Georgia Athletic Association are managed by the Board of Directors. The Board has general control of the business and affairs of the Association, subject to the express limitation that all operations of the Association shall be subject to the powers vested by laws of the State of Georgia in the Board of Regents of the University System and the powers delegated by the Regents to the Chancellor of the University System and the President of UGA.

DOUBLE-DIGIT ASSISTS:	1
DOUBLE-DOUBLES:	0
20-POINT GAMES:	3

PRE-GEORGIA HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◊ A "super senior" who joins the Bulldogs for his sixth season of college basketball. Played four years at Southern Illinois (including a redshirt campaign) before transferring to join Gonzaga's NCAA runner-up squad in 2021.
- ◊ All told, enters the 2021-22 season with 133 career games played and statistical totals of 974 points (7.3 ppg), 309 assists (2.3 apg), 245 rebounds (1.8 rpg) and 164 steals (1.2 spg).
- ◊ Notched 46 double-figure scoring outputs (three at Gonzaga and 43 at SIU), with a trio of 20-point performances in that ledger.

2020-21 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◊ Played in 30 of 32 games for Gonzaga, missing only a pair of early-January dates with San Francisco and BYU due to a slight leg injury.
- ◊ Averaged 4.2 points, 1.7 assists and 1.6 rebounds in 13.5 minutes of action per game.
- ◊ Upped his scoring contributions in West Coast Conference action to 5.3 points per game. Largely due to higher shooting percentages in those outings – .561 overall and .429 on 3-pointers in WCC contests versus .500 and .350 overall.
- ◊ Logged double-digit minutes in 25 contests, including four of six NCAA Tournament outings.
- ◊ Posted a trio of double-figure scoring outputs – 15 points at Pepperdine, 12 at San Francisco and 10 versus Santa Clara.
- ◊ Recorded season-highs tallies of 15 points – on 6-of-8 shooting from the floor, including 2-of-3 from 3-point range – and 21 minutes against Pepperdine.
- ◊ Equaled his season-most minutes versus Norfolk State in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament, scoring six points and dishing out a season-high seven assists. The seven assists tied the eighth-most ever by a Bulldog in NCAA Tourney action.

SIU HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◊ Played in 103 games, starting 70 of those, in four seasons at Southern Illinois from 2016-17 through 2019-20.
- ◊ Scored 845 points (8.2 ppg), dished out 258 assists (2.5 apg), grabbed 196 boards (1.9 rpg) and collected 138 steals (1.3 spg) during his career with the Salukis.
- ◊ Among SIU's career leaders, wrapped up his career in Carbondale ranked No. 10 in steals (138) and No. 17 in assists (258).

2019-20 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◊ Played and started six contests before breaking his hand and pursuing a medical redshirt.
- ◊ Averaged 15.0 points, 3.3 assists, 3.2 steals and 3.0 rebounds in 31.1 minutes of PT in those half-dozen contests.
- ◊ Named to The Sunshine Slam All-Tournament team after averaging 17.0 points, 4.3 steals, 3.7 assists and 2.7 boards over the event's games.
- ◊ Collected a career-high seven steals – and tied for the No. 5 spot on SIU's all-time single-game leaders ledger – versus Oakland.

2018-19 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◊ Started all 32 games and averaged 10.4 points and 3.7 assists per game for the Salukis.
- ◊ Named to the Missouri Valley Conference Scholar-Athlete second team for the second consecutive season.
- ◊ Led SIU in assists – the second-highest average of any Saluki over the past 10 seasons – and 3-pointers made (40).
- ◊ Among MVC statistical leaders, ranked No. 3 in assists, No. 5 in steals and No. 8 in minutes.
- ◊ In stats for MVC games only, ranked No. 2 in assists (4.0 apg), No. 4 in steals (1.5 spg) and No. 7 in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.85).
- ◊ Handed out a career-high 10 assists against Howard, just the 21st double-digit assist effort in program history.

- ◊ Posted 18 double-figure scoring outputs, with a high 23 at Southeast Missouri.

2017-18 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◊ Logged action in all 33 games, with 32 starts. His only non-nod was Dec. 9 against Southeast Missouri.
- ◊ Contributed 9.8 points, 2.7 assists, 2.3 boards and 1.4 steals in 30.0 minutes of playing time per outing.
- ◊ Named the MVC's Most Improved player and also featured on the second-team of the league's Scholar-Athlete honorees.
- ◊ Led the Salukis in both 3-point percentage (.384) and assists (90), while finishing second in steals (47).
- ◊ Produced 18 double-digit scoring outputs, including a pair of 20-point performances against Illinois Springfield (20) and Indiana State (career-high 25).
- ◊ Connected on 8-of-12 shots from the floor, including 3-of-4 3-pointers, and 6-of-9 trips to the line en route to his 25-point output against the Sycamores.
- ◊ Knocked down the game-winning free throws with 4.1 seconds left in overtime against Missouri State.

JUNIOR

WOODSTOCK, GA.

ETOWAH HIGH SCHOOL

2020-21 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◊ Named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll for the second consecutive year.
- ◊ Walk-on whose statistical contributions increased greatly from those of his freshman year.
- ◊ One of two Bulldogs with a higher scoring average in SEC play (3.2 ppg) than overall (2.4 ppg). Also upped his efficiency in conference action, improving from a 63.0 percent overall field goal clip to 71.4 percent.
- ◊ After playing in nine of 32 games in 2019-20, logged action in six of seven non-conference contests and bettered his previous high for minutes played in four of those contests.
- ◊ A key contributor in win over Samford, recording a "+/-" of "+8" in just four minutes of action.
- ◊ Scored on a reverse layup with 1:17 left in the game to give UGA its first lead of the game, which the Bulldogs never relinquished.
- ◊ Saw his SEC PT increase greatly at the midway point of conference play.
- ◊ After playing a combined eight mop-up minutes in the first eight SEC games (with five DNPs), earned meaningful PT in each of UGA's last 12 outings of the campaign.
- ◊ In five contests from Feb. 6-20 – against Vanderbilt, No. 16/15 Tennessee, No. 11/11 Alabama, Missouri and Florida – scored 34 points, more than four times as many as the eight points he had in his previous 20 career appearances for Georgia.
- ◊ Posted those 34 points while shooting an almost unfathomable 85.7 percent (12-of-14) from the field.
- ◊ Also played 86 minutes in those five outings, versus 60 combined in his first 20 GP.
- ◊ Came within a single point of his first double-figure scoring output in consecutive contests at Alabama and against Missouri in Athens.

- ◊ Enjoyed a perfect shooting night from the floor against Missouri in Athens - 2-of-2 FGs, 1-of-1 3FGs and 4-of-4 FTs.
- ◊ Drew eight charges in the last 11 games of the season, including five in back-to-back outings against Alabama (three) and Mizzou (two).

2019-20 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◊ Walk-on who saw action in nine contests.
- ◊ Logged his first regular-season action in the closing moments of the Delaware State game, including his first – and only – field goal attempt of the season.
- ◊ Grabbed a steal against Dayton in the opening round of the Maui Jim Maui Invitational.
- ◊ Four of the nine outings in which he played (N.C. Central, Austin Peay, Mississippi State and South Carolina) featured matching minutes tallies of three MP.
- ◊ Logged action in four SEC outings – road games at Auburn, Mississippi State and LSU and the home matchup with South Carolina.
- ◊ Recorded his first individual statistic in league play with a rebound at LSU in the regular-season finale.

HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◊ Coached by Jason Dasinger as a junior and senior and by Allen Whitehart during his sophomore season at Etowah.
- ◊ Named All-State by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution in 2018 and 2019, earning second-team honors as a junior and honorable mention status as a senior.
- ◊ Helped lead Etowah to three consecutive Region titles.
- ◊ Named both Cherokee Tribune Player of the Year and Region Player of the Year in 2018 and 2019.
- ◊ Scored 1,505 career points at Etowah, a top-5 scoring output in school history.
- ◊ Also tabbed first-team All-Region and All-County in 2017, 2018 and 2019.
- ◊ Named team MVP of the 2018 GACA All-Star game after recording 23 points,

GRADUATE

TIFTON, GA.

VIRGINIA TECH

2020-21 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- ♦ One of only two players to start all 26 games for the Bulldogs.
- ♦ On the season, averaged 8.5 points and 3.4 rebounds in 28.4 minutes per game.
- ♦ Connected on a team-high 46 3-pointers, converting at least one attempt from behind the arc in 21 of 26 games.
- ♦ Produced 11 double-figure scoring performances in 26 games...after recording 14 in 89 outings in three seasons at Virginia Tech.
- ♦ A consistent double-digit scorer in non-conference action, putting up between 10-13 points in five of seven outings.
- ♦ Exploded for a career-high 21 points vs. Mississippi State, which also produced career-bests for both field goals (seven) and 3-pointers (five).
- ♦ Wrapped up non-conference play against Northeastern and opened league action versus Mississippi State, LSU and Arkansas with four consecutive double-figure performances. Averaged 13.3 ppg over that quartet of contests.
- ♦ Made game-winning layup with 1.3 seconds left against Kentucky, snapping Georgia's 14-game losing streak to the Wildcats that dated back to 2013.
- ♦ Started the Vanderbilt game red hot on the offensive end, scoring 11 of his eventual 14 points in first 10:36 of that contest.

VIRGINIA TECH HIGHLIGHTS:

- ♦ Played in 89 outings in three seasons with the Hokies, with 35 career starts – one as a freshman, four as a sophomore and 30 as a junior.
- ♦ Tallied 467 points (5.2 ppg) and 265 rebounds (3.0 rpg) in 1,601 minutes (18.0 mpg) while at Tech.
- ♦ Notched 14 total double-figure scoring outputs, with eight of those coming in the 2019-20 campaign.
- ♦ Helped Virginia Tech reach consecutive NCAA Tournaments in 2018 and 2019, including the Hokies' advancement to the "Sweet 16" as a sophomore.

- ♦ Posted career-high efforts of 18 points (at Pitt on Feb. 15, 2020) and seven rebounds (four times).

2019-20 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- ♦ Started 30 of 32 games, the second-highest number of nods for any Hokie.
- ♦ Entered the season with a career high of 30 minutes (and that actually was rounded up from logging 29:33 against Maryland-Eastern Shore) but notched 30-plus minutes 15 times as a junior.

- ♦ Led VT offensively in four games, in boards in three contests, in blocks a team-high 12 outings and in steals five times.
- ♦ Increased his overall production by eye-catching numbers, upping his averages for scoring (+4.3 ppg), rebounding (+2.0 rpg) and minutes (+15.0 mpg). Also improved his totals tallies for blocks (+13), steals (+18) and 3-pointers (+44).
- ♦ Remarkably, went from making a single 3-pointer (on 12 attempts) as a sophomore to connecting on 44 (at a 34.9 percent percentage) as a junior.
- ♦ After making just one 3-pointer as a sophomore, opened the season with a nine-game streak with at least one make from behind the arc.

- ♦ After making just three 3-pointers in his first two seasons with the Hokies, knocked down three or more 3-pointers seven times in 2019-20.
- ♦ Was on the same side of the bracket as Georgia for the Maui Jim Maui Invitational but did not face the Bulldogs after Tech upset No. 3 Michigan State in the Hokies' first-round matchup.
- ♦ Posted his first double-figure scoring output in ACC action with 15 points against Duke on Dec. 6.
- ♦ Logged a career-most 43 minutes of action in a 79-77, double-overtime win over North Carolina on Jan. 22.
- ♦ Knocked down a pair of free throws with 13 seconds left in regulation to help extend the contest against the Tar Heels.

- ♦ Extremely efficient en route to his career-high 18 points versus Pittsburgh on Feb. 15, connecting on 6-of-9 shots from the field including 4-of-6 3-pointers.
- ♦ Collected five steals in a victory over Clemson on March 4, the highest single-game theft tally by any Virginia Tech player during the 2019-20 season.
- ♦ Paced the Hokies offensively in the final two regular-season games, putting up 17 points at Clemson and following that with 14 at Notre Dame on March 7.

Game-by-game breakdown on Page 8.

In many ways, Georgia's final game of the 2020-21 campaign was a microcosm of the Bulldogs' entire campaign.

Georgia, which finished 14-12 overall, dropped a 73-70 decision to Missouri. A quick glance at the box score showed both teams connecting on 26-of-60 shots from the field. The difference, while the Bulldogs converted on one more 3-pointer, the Tigers made four more free throws.

Much like much a large number of Georgia's games, a play here or there decided the contest's outcome. In fact, nine of the Bulldogs' outings – just under 35 percent – were decided by single digits, with six of those by four points or less.

Georgia was among the nation's most balanced teams offensively during the 2020-21 season, with seven Bulldogs averaging 8.5-14.0 points per game.

Georgia began the week of Jan. 11 as the only D-I team in the nation with six players averaging double figures.

All told, eight different Bulldogs combined to notch 100 double-digit scoring outputs and four or more scored in double figures in 17 of UGA's 26 outings, including a season-high six against both Auburn and Jacksonville. Seven different Bulldogs led Georgia offensively in multiple games.

A Tough Slate Without Breaks

Georgia faced the SEC's most challenging league schedule and did so as the only team to play its first 17 games of the conference slate without skipping a play date due to COVID-19 or weather-related issues.

Seven SEC teams compiled records of .500 or better in league play. After the opening round of the SEC Tournament, Georgia was the only league team to play five of those – Alabama, Florida, LSU, Ole Miss and Missouri. In fact, no other SEC team had played more than three of those teams.

The aforementioned SEC Tournament matchup with Missouri represented the seventh NCAA Tournament opponent in Georgia's last eight games.

The Bulldogs endured a "February Frenzy" that rivaled anything "March Madness" has to offer.

Georgia was the only SEC team to play five straight games versus the league's NCAA invitees without a break, doing so between Feb. 10-23.

Bulldogs Supply The Digits

Georgia averaged 77.5 points per game during 2020-21, continuing the trend of big-time point production under head coach Tom Crean.

The Bulldogs produced their second-highest scoring average of the 2000s as outlined in the next column.

Walk-on Jaxon Etter emerged as a significant contributor during SEC play.

Georgia scored 91 points in a Feb. 23 win over LSU – the 15th time UGA reached the 90-point plateau in 87 games under Crean. That's a relatively healthy 17.2 percent of his games at UGA.

By comparison, Georgia scored 90 or more points just 15 times in 387 games before Crean's arrival, or .038 percent of the time in a span that dates back to the 2006-07 season.

Dogs Earns Weekly SEC Honors

Tye Fagan and Toumani Camara earned SEC Player of the Week honors during the 2020-21 season, while K.D. Johnson secured SEC Freshman of the Week accolades.

Fagan was chosen on Nov. 30 after posting career-high tallies of 21 points and 10 boards en route to his first career double-double in the opener versus Florida A&M.

Camara was tabbed on Dec. 21 after he equaled his career-best scoring output (19 points) against Cincinnati en route to his second double-double.

Johnson was selected on Jan. 18 after he averaged 17.5 ppg in his first two collegiate outings against Auburn and Ole Miss.

Dogs Win Three Straight In SEC

Georgia defeated Ole Miss, Auburn and Vanderbilt to secure its first trio of consecutive SEC victories since the latter portion of the 2016-17 campaign.

More impressive than the wins over the Rebels, Tigers and Commodores were the numbers within those outings.

In Georgia's first eight SEC outings, the Bulldogs were 2-6 and converted on 43.8 percent of their shots from the field, including 32.0 percent from 3-point range.

In the Bulldogs' trio of victories, they connected on a 53.8 percent (86-of-160) of their shots from the field, including a sizzling 46.9 percent (23-of-49) from behind the 3-point arc.

Etter Betters Contributions

The production of walk-on Jaxon Etter increased dramatically in the last month of the season.

Entering a Feb. 6 outing versus Vanderbilt, Etter sported career averages of 0.4 points, 0.4 rebounds and 3.0 minutes in 20 outings as a Bulldog.

In Georgia's last 10 games, the sophomore from Woodstock, Ga., contributed 4.1 points and 1.7 rebounds in 11.0 minutes per game. He also drew eight charges.

Etter's increased production didn't magically blossom on Feb. 6. He played a part in several victories during the season. Etter logged meaningful minutes in multiple non-conference outings, most prominently against Samford when his layup with 1:17 left gave Georgia its first lead of the night.

Wheeler Tops UGA Assist Mark

Sahvir Wheeler broke Georgia's single-season assist during a Feb. 27 matchup with South Carolina and eventually bettered the previous mark by a wide margin as outlined below.

Wheeler finished the season with eight point-assist double-doubles, the most by any SEC player since 1993. He also recorded the first triple-double in UGA history with 14 points, 13 assists and 11 rebounds against LSU on Feb 23.

UGA Snaps Losing Streak To Cats

Georgia outscored Kentucky 7-0 over the final 109 seconds to secure a 63-62 victory over the Wildcats on Jan. 20. The victory snapped a 14-game losing streak to Kentucky.

RONNIE HOGUE REMEMBERED

Ronnie Hogue, Georgia Basketball's first Black scholarship student-athlete, was honored with a commemorative sticker on the Stegeman Coliseum basket supports during the 2020-21 season. Hogue passed away in September 2020 at the age of 69.

A native of Washington, D.C., Hogue arrived in Athens in the fall of 1969 and became one of the best Bulldogs ever.

Two years before freshmen became eligible under NCAA rules, Hogue averaged 19.1 points per game on UGA's freshman squad. The following year when he averaged 16.2 ppg and was named to the SEC's All-Sophomore team.

Hogue was named first-team All-SEC as a junior after upping his scoring average to 20.5 ppg. In the season's fifth game, on December 20, 1971, he poured for a career-high 46 points against LSU, the most ever by a Bulldog in Stegeman Coliseum and second-highest single-game tally in school history. Perhaps more impressive than the scoring total was the fact that Hogue connected on 20-of-23 shots from the floor en route to that output. As a senior, Hogue averaged 16.5 ppg.

Hogue finished his Georgia career with 1,367 points in just three seasons. At the time, that ranked second among UGA's all-time scoring leaders.

Hogue was chosen by the Washington Bullets in the 1973 NBA Draft.

The Bulldogs' last win over UK prior to the 2020-21 season was on March 7, 2013.

Graduate transfer P.J. Horne scored the winning layup with 1.3 seconds remaining, muscling through the lane and scoring on a nifty pass from Sahvir Wheeler.

Rayshaun Hammonds double-double of 15 points and 12 rebounds led Georgia to a 65-62 upset at No. 9 Memphis on Jan. 4, 2020. The victory was just the Bulldogs' second-ever road win over a ranked non-conference opponent. Georgia's only other road win over an AP top-25 team came on Dec. 29, 1977, when the Bulldogs upset No. 7 Louisville, 73-70, in the championship of the Louisville Classic.

2008 SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

Terrance Woodbury (above left) and MVP Sundiata Gaines (above right) led Georgia to the 2008 SEC Tournament championship with an unforgettable run that included two games in one day. After knocking off Ole Miss in overtime on Thursday, a category F2 tornado struck downtown Atlanta on the night of March 14 shortly before the Bulldogs were to take on Kentucky. It forced postponement of that second-round game, and the tournament's remainder was played at Alexander Memorial Coliseum (top), home court of arch-rival Georgia Tech. Georgia defeated both the Wildcats and Mississippi State on March 15 and then outlasted Arkansas in the championship game on March 16.

THE "OTHER CINDERELLA" OF 1983 THE FINAL FOUR

N.C. State's victory over Houston in the 1983 NCAA Championship game is one of the college basketball's most memorable games. Somewhat lost is Georgia's run as the "other Cinderella" of the 1983. The Bulldogs upset No. 3 St. John's and No. 8 North Carolina to advance to Albuquerque.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN ALEC KESSLER

An All-SEC Player on the Court,
Kessler is College Basketball's Premier Student-Athlete

The late Alec Kessler, an All-America forward at Georgia in 1989-90, arguably rates among the top scholar-athletes in collegiate history. Kessler, a 3.91 student in Microbiology, was twice named the U.S. Basketball Writers Scholar-Athlete of the Year. For being so honored, Kessler was awarded a pair of $20,000 post-graduate scholarships. Kessler, who played four seasons for the NBA's Miami Heat, in 1991 donated all $40,000 from these scholarships to UGA's general scholarship fund.

Each SEC school annually selects a Legend who made outstanding contributions on and off the court and brought notoriety, prestige and honor to both their school and the SEC. The Legends are recognized at the SEC Tournament.

DOMINIQUE WILKINS

Known as the "Human Highlight Film," Dominique Wilkins arrived in Athens in 1979 and helped take Georgia Basketball to new heights.

Individually, Wilkins was a two-time All-American and a three-time All-SEC honoree. He was also tabbed both SEC Player of the Year and MVP of the SEC Tournament in 1981.

From a team perspective, Wilkins led Georgia to the 1981 NIT, the Bulldogs' first postseason appearance. A year later, he helped Georgia advance to the NIT semifinals.

Wilkins entered the NBA Draft after his junior year. He was the No. 3 overall pick by the Utah Jazz but soon thereafter traded to the Atlanta Hawks. Wilkins played the majority of his career with the Hawks, where he was a nine-time All-Star, a seven-time All-NBA selection and a two-time slam dunk champion.

In 1991, Wilkins became the first Bulldog to have his jersey – No. 21 – retired by Georgia.

Wilkins was inducted into the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2004, was a member of the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame's inaugural class in 2005, was Georgia Basketball's first inductee into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2006 and was inducted into the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in 2016.

HUGH DURHAM

During 17 seasons at Georgia, Hugh Durham elevated Georgia Basketball to a national stage.

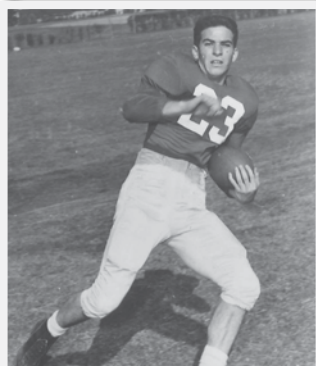

Durham is UGA's winningest coach with 297 victories. Prior to his arrival, Georgia had never received a postseason bid in 74 seasons. The Bulldogs reached postseason play 11 times during Durham's tenure and also won their first SEC Tournament in 1983 and SEC Championship in 1990. He was named SEC Coach of the Year three times – in 1985, 1987 and 1990.

In UGA's initial NCAA Tournament appearance in 1983, the Bulldogs advanced to the Final Four. Durham's Dogs defeated St. John's and North Carolina to win the East Regional before falling to eventual champion N.C. State.

Durham posted 633 career victories in 37 seasons, with 230 at Florida State and 106 at Jacksonville bookending his wins at Georgia. He was the first coach in Division I history to take two schools to their first Final Four and just the sixth to reach the Final Four at two schools.

Durham was inducted into the FSU Hall of Fame 1980, the Kentucky High School Hall of Fame in 1994, the Florida Sports Hall of Fame in 1999, the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2009, the Kentucky Sports Hall of Fame in 2012 and the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in 2016.

ZIPPY MOROCCO

Anthony "Zippy" Morocco came to Athens from Youngstown, Ohio and became UGA's first All-American in basketball and one of the Bulldogs' best two-sport performers ever.

Morocco led the SEC in scoring in 1953 at 23.6 points per game on 590 points, breaking the existing SEC mark of 540 points by Kentucky's Cliff Hagan. He led the Bulldog football team in kickoff returns three consecutive years and in punt returns twice. He also was Georgia's top receiver in 1950 and averaged over 10 yards every time he touched the ball.

Morocco was elected to the state of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 1986.

ALEC KESSLER

Alec Kessler is one of the greatest student-athletes in the history of college athletics.

On the basketball court, he broke UGA's career scoring record, was named SEC Player of the Year and All-America in 1990 and was chosen No. 12 overall in the NBA Draft.

Kessler graduated with a 3.91 GPA while majoring in Microbiology. He was named men's basketball's Academic All-American of the Year in both 1989 and 1990 and was selected as the top Academic All-American for all sports in 1990.

Kessler was elected to the state of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2015.

UGA CIRCLE OF HONOR

ALEC KESSLER – 2000
ZIPPY MOROCCO – 2002
JARVIS HAYES – 2020

The Circle of Honor is designed to pay tribute to extraordinary student-athletes and coaches who by their performance and conduct have brought honor to the university and themselves, and who by their actions have contributed to the tradition of the Georgia Bulldogs. The criteria for selection also stipulate that each recipient has earned his or her academic degree.

WILLIE ANDERSON

Atlanta native Willie Anderson blossomed into one of the college basketball's most diverse talents at UGA. As a senior, Anderson averaged 16.7 points, 4.0 assists and 1.9 steals in 1988. He then earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team that summer.

Anderson was drafted No. 10 overall by San Antonio Spurs in the 1988 NBA Draft. He was a first-team All-NBA Rookie pick in 1989 and went on to play nine seasons in the NBA.

Anderson was enshrined in the State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2020.

VERN FLEMING

1984 OLYMPIAN LOS ANGELES GAMES

Vern Fleming, one of the finest Bulldog performers in history, made his mark at every level of competitive basketball. In 1984, he earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team and played a large role in its Gold Medal-winning effort. Fleming averaged 7.7 points during the Los Angeles Olympics, connecting on 51.1 percent of his shots. He also tallied 19 rebounds, 19 assists and nine steals.

Many consider the 1984 Americans as the finest amateur assemblage in the sport's history. The squad featured future Naismith Hall of Fame inductees Michael Jordan, Chris Mullin and Patrick Ewing.

From 1984-95, Fleming was a standout player for the NBA's Indiana Pacers.

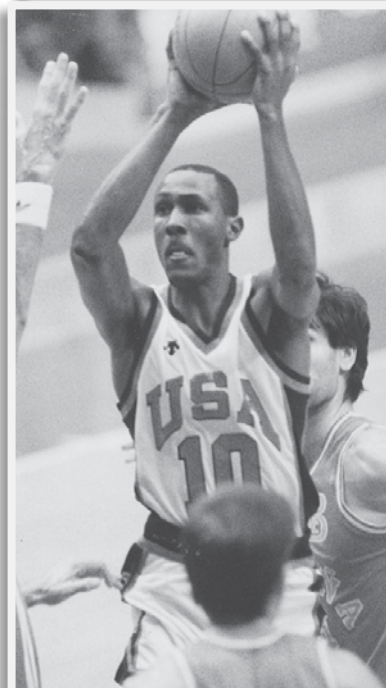

WILLIE ANDERSON

1988 OLYMPIAN SEOUL GAMES

Willie Anderson was star performer of the 1987 and 1988 Bulldogs, leading the '87 squad to an NCAA Tournament berth.

In 1988, Anderson was selected to the U.S. Olympic Team and in the same year was the first-round draft pick of the San Antonio Spurs. The Americans earned a bronze medal at the Seoul Olympics. Anderson averaged 5.0 points per game while pacing the squad by shooting 64.0 percent from the field. He also added 13 rebounds, six assists, six steals and four blocks.

Anderson returned from Seoul and played seven years for the Spurs before doing stints with Toronto, New York and Miami to round out his 10-year career in the league.

JUMAINE JONES

1998 GOODWILL GAMES NEW YORK

The 6-7 forward put an exclamation mark on his outstanding freshman season at Georgia by making the 12-man U.S. team for the Goodwill Games. Jones later started all five games for the Americans and averaged 7.4 points for the gold medal winners.

TREY THOMPkins

2009 U19 WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS AUCKLAND

Eighteen years had gone by since the American Under 19 team had won its last gold medal at this 2-week tournament. The rising Georgia sophomore played a key role in restoring the Yanks to the winner's circle. Thompkins averaged 10.6 points – second-best on the team – and 5.1 rebounds per game. He also had the Americans' highest single-game scoring effort when he poured in 22 in a 4th-round win over Greece. The U.S. team won all nine of its games by an average margin of over 22 points.

A year later, Thompkins was named to the USA Select squad, a group of collegians that worked as training partners alongside the USA National Team.

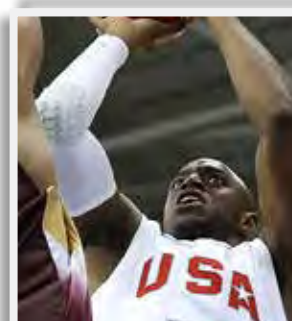

DAMIEN WILKINS

2015 PAN AM GAMES TORONTO

Former Bulldog Damien Wilkins was selected for the U.S. team that participated in the 2015 Pan Am Games in Toronto. Wilkins, 35, started every contest in the five-game tournament and helped the Americans secure a bronze medal. He averaged 13.2 points while shooting 54.8 percent from the floor, 75.0 percent from 3-point range and 70.8 percent from the line. Wilkins also chipped in 5.0 rebounds in 25.4 minutes per game.

Following the Games, Wilkins signed a free agent contract with the Charlotte Hornets to continue his 10-season NBA career.

YANTE MATEN

2020 AMERICUP QUALIFYING INDIANAPOLIS

Yante Maten, the 2018 SEC Player of the Year, donned the Red, White & Blue for USA Basketball in 2020. Maten suited up for the national team participating in qualifying for the 2021 Americup.

Maten started both games and averaged 14.0 points – while shooting 68.8 percent from the field – and 5.5 rebounds in victories over Bahamas and Mexico.

The first games in Georgia basketball history took place in the old YMCA building, located at the corner of Lumpkin and Clayton streets.

Since the inaugural season of 1905-06, Georgia basketball has called six different buildings home. These facilities have held a wide range of usefulness and pertinence to basketball. There's little doubt, however, that the Bulldogs' current home of Stegeman Coliseum is the best, most accommodating home they've ever had.

During the 1906-12 seasons, Georgia games were played in the old Athens YMCA building located at the corner of Lumpkin and Clayton Streets, currently the site of the Georgia Theater. The seating capacity for spectators was about 200, but it didn't seem to matter in those days. The earliest Bulldogs played their games in relative anonymity. Very rarely did the attendance reach full capacity at the YMCA building.

The building that is now called Memorial Hall on campus was the second gymnasium used by the Bulldog cagers. Construction on this facility began in 1910 and was to be built by the Alumni and the YMCA in a joint effort. The Alumni Association, however, eventually assumed full responsibility for the funds for its construction. Only in a partial state of completion, the team began to use the auditorium of "Alumni Hall," as it was called then, for its home games. Spectators viewed the games from a balcony which ran around the playing court, and the baskets were affixed to this balcony. In fact, the balcony became quite the advantage for Bulldog hoopsters, who had to tailor the arc of their shots to avoid hitting it.

Alumni Hall was used until about 1920, when the team moved to another on-campus location known as "The Octagon." It was located about where the current Main Library parking lot is, between the library and Jackson Street. Built in 1916 for $3,600 and for the purpose of accommodating summer-school functions, the Octagon was made of wood and sat approximately 1,400 people. The main problem for basketball was the lack of a heating system in this 8-sided building. There was also a four-foot opening around the wall up to the roof, with the roof overhanging to prevent rain from blowing in. The Octagon was used sparingly because of the absence of heat and also because of the ever-growing crowds.

Moss Auditorium, formerly the third floor of what became the Gallant-Belk store, was used for most of the games from 1920 until Woodruff Hall was completed. Crowds of up to 1,500 were estimated to have attended some of the home games.

Around this time, however, Coach Herman J. Stegeman was building quite a program. It became necessary for the basketball team to enjoy its own facility to accommodate the large crowds. Just before the completion of Woodruff Hall in 1925, the Bulldogs moved back into Alumni Hall, the construction of which had finally resumed after a fund-raising drive.

Excavation began on November 20, 1924 for the construction of Woodruff Hall, the building that was named for George and Harry Woodruff of Columbus, Ga. This facility was built in a central on-campus location, where the Journalism/Psychology building now stands, and had a seating capacity of 3,500. There was space enough for three basketball courts, with the main court measuring not quite the required length of 94 feet. Built at an estimated cost of $53,000, Woodruff Hall was officially dedicated by Dr. S.V. Sanford on Feb. 21, 1925 in a game where Georgia defeated Georgia Tech 34-24.

Woodruff Hall served as the Bulldogs' home for nearly 40 years. By the end of that stretch, however, many believed it had become the bane of the program.

Harbin "Red" Lawson was Georgia's coach for the last 13 years in Woodruff Hall. Publicly, he joked that it was the only basketball facility where wind direction and velocity affected his strategy. Other coaches, led by Kentucky's Adolph Rupp, despised playing games there. So dimly lit was Woodruff Hall that Auburn coach Joel Eaves turned out half the lights in his own gym, just to prepare for the Georgia game.

Eventually, Eaves became Athletic Director at Georgia. Two years into his tenure, in 1964, the Bulldogs dedicated their current home as the Georgia Coliseum. In 1996, it was given its current name of Stegeman Coliseum in honor of the man that first lifted the Georgia basketball program into prominence.

Over its 50 years, Stegeman Coliseum has hosted its share of memories, and also extracurricular functions. Operated in a co-op agreement with the University's agricultural college, the Bulldogs once shared the building with various rodeos and other livestock shows. And in 1996, the world's sporting attention turned to Athens, where Stegeman played host to volleyball and rhythmic gymnastics competitions at the 1996 Summer Olympic Games.

Zippy Morocco, Georgia's first All-American in 1953, played three years in the spartan conditions of Woodruff Hall, home of the Bulldogs from 1925 until 1964.

ENSURING THE FUTURE OF UGA ATHLETICS

In an effort to permanently fund student-athlete scholarships, the UGA Athletic Association founded the Athletic Scholarship Endowment Program. Contact The Georgia Bulldog Club at 877-GA-DAWGS today to learn more about endowment opportunities for one of UGA's 21 varsity sports.

All Athletic Scholarship Endowment Donors are invited to an annual reception where they have the opportunity to connect with the recipient of their scholarship. To date, more than 200 scholarships have been endowed.
